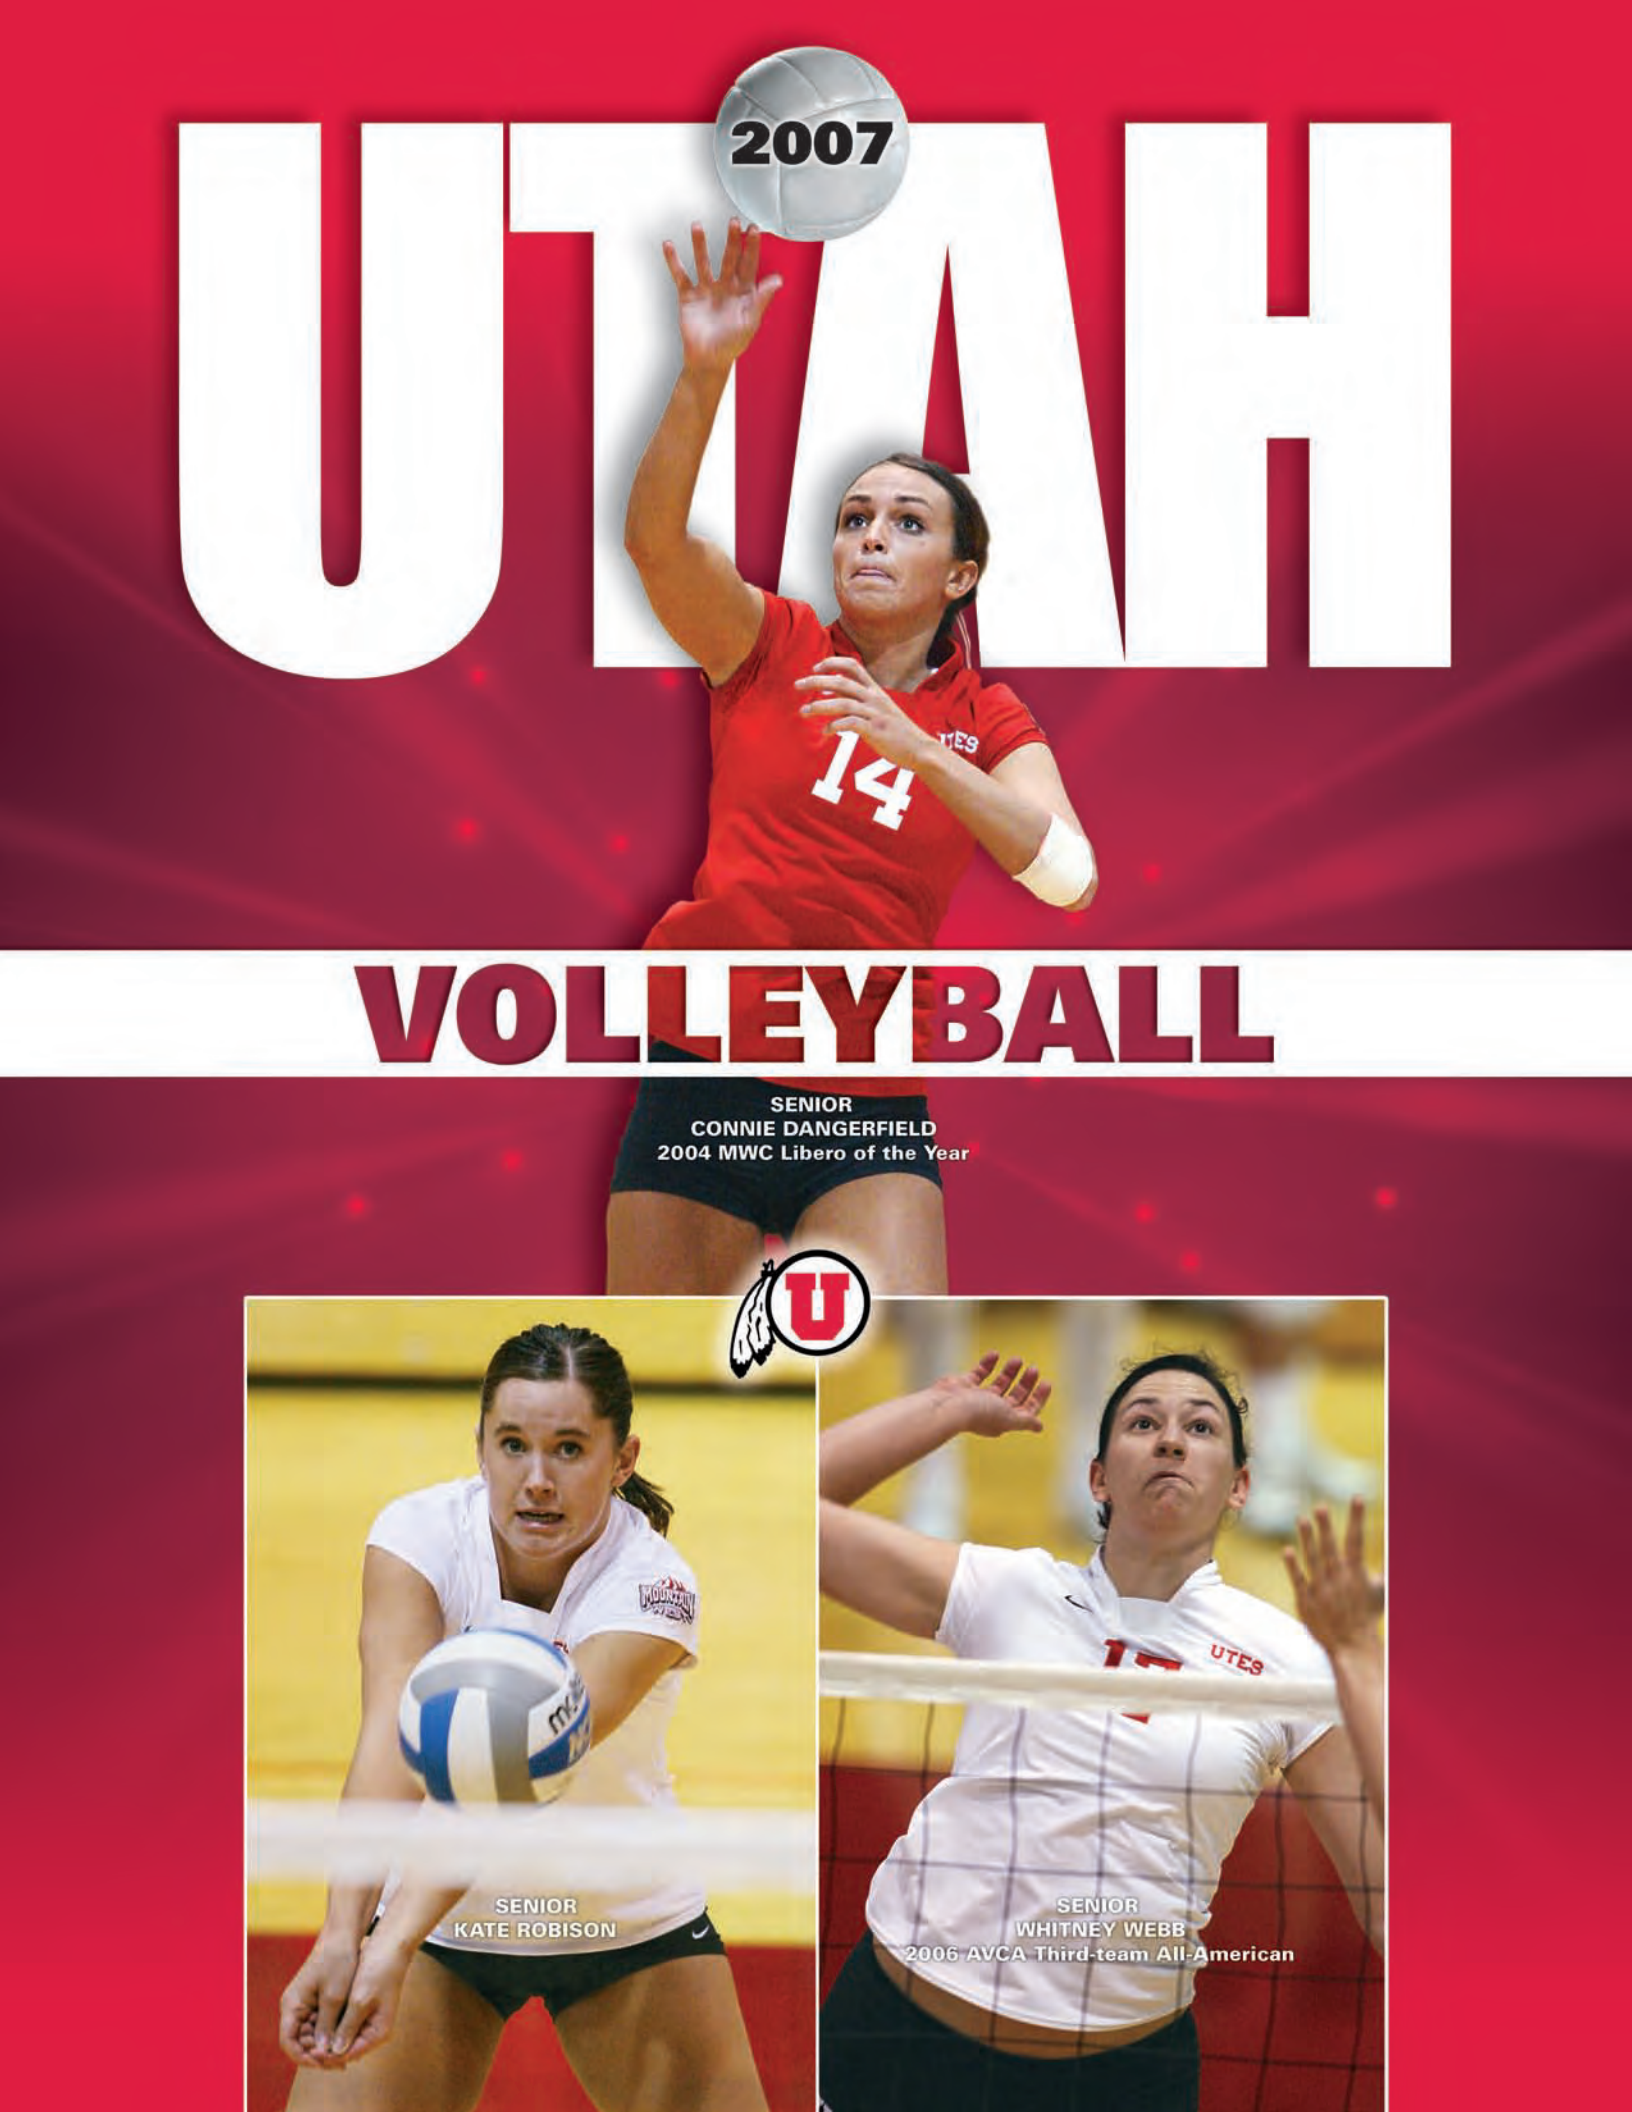
2007 UTAH VOLLEYBALL



Europe 2007

The women's volleyball team embarked on a training trip to Europe in the spring of 2007. The Utes spent time in Italy and Croatia. Some of the teams they played included Italian teams OK Nova Gorcia and Marsciano and Slovenian team Nova KBM Branik. The girls also had a chance to do some sightseeing.

Crimson Court

Top-notch volleyball, a driving band and a raucous crowd all make Crimson Court one of the finest volleyball-only facilities in the nation.

It has become one of the most intimidating competition venues in the country with intimate seating for 1,500 to 2,000 spectators. In the last seven seasons, Utah has racked up a 97-10 (.906) home record and has tallied a 46-5 (.902) home mark in conference matches.

After a comprehensive renovation project, the court was officially dedicated on Sept. 9, 1994. It was christened by both a win over Montana State and a marathon five-game victory over San Jose State in the Utah Classic.

The largest crowd ever recorded at Crimson Court assembled on Nov. 4, 2005, when unranked Utah delivered a 3-0 upset to No. 12 Brigham Young in front of 1,591 fans.

It was in the 2001 season that Utah set the single-season attendance record. The Utes hosted 12,020 fans over the course of 15 games, averaging 801 fans per game.

The fan-friendly Crimson Court is considered one of the finest facilities in the Mountain West Conference — a league that has quickly earned a reputation as one of the strongest in the country. Not only has it been a launching pad for the Utes' nine consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, but Crimson Court has also played host to the tournament. It entertained opening-round action in 2001 and again in 2005.

Crimson Court Highlights

Nov. 4, 2005
Unranked Utah upended No. 12 Brigham Young, 3-0, in front of a record crowd of 1,591 fans. The Utes held one of the most potent offenses in the nation to a mere .172 hitting as they raced their home winning streak out to 12 matches.

Sept. 17, 2004
The unranked Utes fought tooth and nail to upset the No. 6-ranked UCLA Bruins in five games. Connie Dangerfield led the defense and set the conference record for digs in a match (33).

Aug. 31, 2002
No. 13 Utah edged past No. 12 Pacific, 3-2, to claim the Utah Classic title. It extended Utah's home winning streak to 20 games. The Utes streak extended to 29-straight at Crimson Court.

Nov. 3, 2001
No. 15 Utah downed No. 6-ranked Colorado State in ending the Rams' 20-match winning streak, 3-2. It was CSU's first (and only) conference loss as Utah went on to finish 10-2 in league action.

Nov. 30, 2001
The Utes host the first and second rounds of the NCAA tournament and beat Utah State, 3-1, in the second round to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history.

Sept. 5, 2000
Utah erases a 2-0 deficit to topple the No. 1-ranked Stanford Cardinal. The Utes set the school record for assists in a match (93) and tied the mark for kills in a match (97).

Sept. 22, 1995
The Utes snapped an 18-game losing streak to in-state rival BYU with a 3-0 home victory over the Cougars. It was only the Utes' second-ever win over BYU and it was head coach Beth Launiere's first.

The NCAA Tournament

The University of Utah is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament. Over the last several years, the Utes have become a fixture at the NCAA Tournament and have developed a rich history of success in that short span.

"Every year we play a nationally-competitive schedule to prepare for the NCAA Tournament," head coach Beth Launiere says. "Our goal is to continue to go to the NCAA Tournament year in and year out."

The team has participated in the NCAA Tournament each of the last nine years, advancing to the second round seven times. The 2001 team went 2-1 in the tournament but concluded the season with a loss in the regional semifinals to eventual national champion Stanford.

The Utes qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 1998 and advanced to the second round in each of their first three appearances.

The team's regional semifinal appearance in 2001 was the first time in Utah volleyball history that a team had advanced to regionals. The Utes topped Texas Tech, 3-0, and Utah State, 3-1, in the first and second rounds on Crimson Court. Utah fell to host Stanford, 3-1, in Palo Alto in the regional.

In 2003, Utah was down 0-2 to No. 13 Santa Clara in 2003 in the first round before rallying for a thrilling five-game victory. The following night, the Utes fell in three games to host Washington.

Utah played host to the first and second rounds for the second time in 2005, winning the Mountain West automatic bid.

All-Americans

Kim Turner
2000-03 • third-team

A 6-2 middle blocker, Turner was among the top players in the country in 2003. She ranked 18th in the nation in blocks per game (1.48) and 31st in hitting percentage (.367). Turner's senior year ended with Co-Mountain West Conference Player of the Year honors for the second year in a row as she led the MWC in hitting percentage (.434) and points per game (5.61). During conference play, she had 231 kills, which set the league's single-season record.

Turner ended her four years ranked first in the Utah career record books in kills (1,620), total blocks (670), block assists (589) and hitting percentage (.324).

Kim Turner is ranked first all-time at Utah in kills, total blocks, block assists and hitting percentage.

Whitney Webb
2004-present • third-team

Webb had a breakout season as a junior in 2006 for the Utes, averaging 3.13 kills, 2.67 digs and 1.29 blocks per game. She ranked 63rd in the nation in hitting percentage, and led all Mountain West outside hitters with a .344 hitting percentage. Webb was a significant factor in helping Utah lead the nation in blocks (3.71 per game) and ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.323).

In addition to All-America honors, Webb was also an All-West Region and all-conference selection. She is a preseason All-MWC selection for the 2007 campaign.

Kim Turner was Utah's first All-American in 2003.

Airial Salvo
2005-06 • second-team

Salvo, a 6-0 outside hitter, was named the Mountain West Conference Player of the Year in 2006, averaing 4.13 kills, 3.35 digs, 0.78 blocks and 0.45 aces per game. She led the Utes and the MWC with 49 aces on the year, ranking in the top 100 in the country in the category.

Salvo completed her Utah career with 3.73 kills, 0.34 aces, 2.90 kills and 0.83 blocks per game. She also had a hitting percentage of .269.

Utah Goes International

Numerous Utah volleyball players have earned the opportunity to play at the top levels of the game. The Utes have had several players compete within the USA Volleyball system and internationally, training and competing with the senior and junior national teams. Most recently, Emillie Toone competed with the A2 National Team during the summer of 2007.

Danielle Leichliter, who played at Utah from 2002-05, became Utah's first professional player when she participated with VanajanRC Hameenlinna during the summer of 2006.

Several players have earned internatonal experience playing in the Global Challenge, a junior youth volleyball tournament with teams from the USA, Canada, Russia, China and Slovenia. Assistant coaches Burt Fuller and Heather Olmstead served as coaches during the challenge in Maribor, Slovania in July, 2006.

The University of Utah

The University of Utah, a hub for higher education from the Rockies to the Sierras, boasts an academic reputation that is rivaled only by its breathtaking location. To the east rise the 11,500 foot, snow-capped peaks of the Wasatch Mountains. To the west, the Great Salt Lake shimmers beneath the Oquirrh Mountains. The 1,500-acre campus, nestled in the foothills of the Wasatch Mountains, is a beautiful collage of native and exotic trees, fountains, flowering malls and pedestrian walkways.

Founded in 1850, the U. has established itself as an international center for scientific, medical and engineering research. Scientists from the University of Utah have identified more genes with diseases than anywhere else in the world.

The University of Utah is one of only 88 universities in the United States classified by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as a Research I university—defined by its full range of undergraduate programs, commitment to graduate education and the high priority given to research. It is ranked 28th nationally out of 127 major public research universities according to the Lombardi Program for Measuring University Performance.

The University offers 77 undergraduate majors, 80 minors and certificates, and 95 graduate majors. Academic opportunities at the U. include schools of law, medicine, architecture, pharmacy, business and engineering, among others. Utah draws its 28,000-plus student population from all 50 states and more than 100 foreign countries.

Research Park, which is located on 320 acres adjacent to the campus, features the Huntsman Cancer Institute, the Howard Hughes Medical Institute, the Eccles Institute of Human Genetics and the Moran Eye Center. The Huntsman Cancer Institute houses the largest genetic database in the world and is the only National Cancer Institute in the Intermountain West. Gene targeting was developed at the Eccles Institute. The Moran Eye Center is considered one of the top eye centers in the world.

The U. is also noted for technology transfer and its Center for High Performance Computing serves as a link to major aerospace industries, high-tech manufacturers and research companies. It manages one of the three most successful technology parks in the U.S., with more than 40 high-tech companies created by University faculty. The U. has had a presence on the Internet since 1970, when it became the Internet's fourth node.

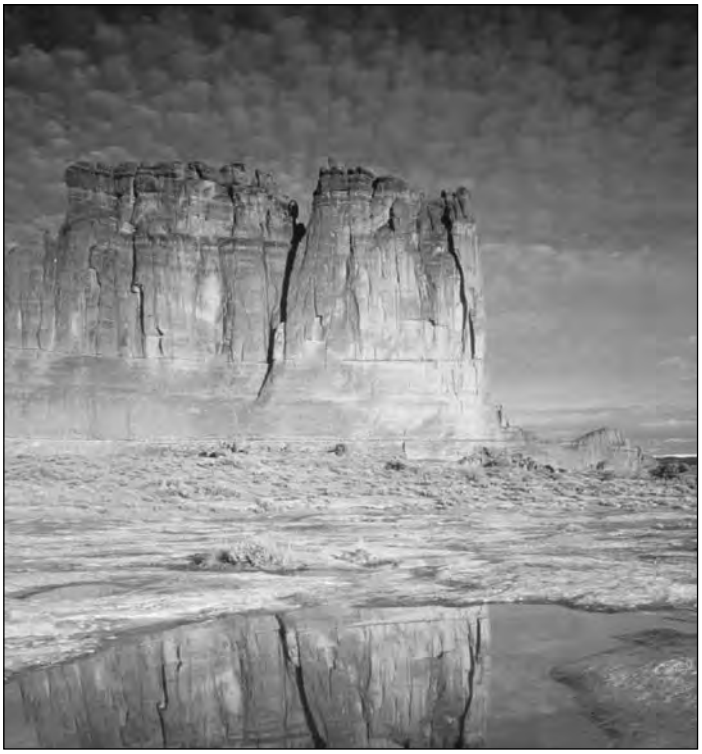
The U.'s location in the largest city in the Intermountain West also provides a metropolitan charm. The 36th-largest metro area in the nation (population 1,333,914), Salt Lake is home to professional symphony, ballet, modern dance, opera and theater companies, as well as five professional sports teams.

The University of Utah

- Founded in 1850
- Research I university
- 172 degrees (undergraduate/graduate)
- Enrollment of 28,619
- Campus is located on 1,500 acres
- Medical and Law Schools
- Nation's first American Indian Social Work program

The Wasatch Mountain range ("mountains of many waters," as named by the Paiute Indians) are part of the Rocky Mountain range.

Eight world-class ski resorts are located less than 40 miles from downtown Salt Lake.



Ten national parks are within a few hours drive of Salt Lake City.

Salt Lake City played host to the 2002 Winter Olympic Games.

Campus Life

University of Utah students live in a magnificent mountain setting in Heritage Commons—a living-learning community of 3,500 students that opened in 2000. Heritage Commons received world-wide acclaim in 2002 when it served as the Athletes Village during the XIX Olympic Winter and Paralympic Games, hosted by Salt Lake City. The residential center is the heart of campus activity and exudes a vibrant, energetic "college town" atmosphere.

The Princeton Review ranked the University of Utah No. 7 for "Best Campus Environment" in 2006.

Game and exercise rooms, computer labs, Internet connections in every room, and a dining room that is open all day and serves up freshly cooked meals on request are some of the reasons behind the School of the Year award delivered by the Intermountain Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls. Residence hall students also thrive academically at Utah: More than half of them maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Situated in historic Fort Douglas at the mouth of Red Butte Canyon and located on 70 acres of land, the expansive 912,000 square foot residential complex boasts picturesque views of Salt Lake City and the surrounding mountain ranges. Heritage Commons consists of 21 buildings–20 residential and one for dining and support services. Eight of the buildings are apartment style, with 235 one-, two- and three-bedroom apartments.

First-year students live in Gateway Heights, a hall with furnished, double semi-suites, an advanced telecommunications system (voice, video and data), an ethernet connection to the U. student computer system, cable TV connections, a large community lounge, study rooms and indoor bike storage. Each floor has a kitchenette.

Chapel Glen is home to both first-year students and upperclassmen and offers the same amenities as Gateway Heights, along with a fitness area. Sage Point is reserved for upper division students and has single, double and deluxe suites. Sage Point also has computer and technology labs and an international area.

Benchmark Plaza is an apartment complex allocated for single students who have earned 60-plus credit hours. Shoreline Ridge, which offers both furnished and unfurnished apartment units, is reserved for students with families and single graduate students.

The Chase N. Peterson Heritage Center, open 24 hours a day, seven days a week during peak demand periods, is the hub of activity in the student housing village. It contains a central dining facility that seats 600, a convenience store, computer and technology labs, fitness and game rooms, four multipurpose rooms, a mail center and more. The student "village" also contains a University Bookstore branch, University Copy Center and the University Guest House, an on-campus hotel.

Transportation is another benefit of Heritage Commons. A U of U parking permit allows residents to park close to their hall, but a car is not necessary. Free campus shuttles run every 10 minutes and the Utah Transit Authority and light rail (TRAX), free to U. students, combine to traverse 21 routes to and from campus. TRAX extends to downtown Salt Lake and outlying areas as well. The residence halls are also easily accessible to main campus by foot and are connected via the George S. Eccles 2002 Legacy Bridge.

TRAX light rail is free to University of Utah students.

The Residence Hall Association provides various activities for students.

Heritage Commons residence halls served as the Athletes Village at the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

The Utah volleyball team has a variety of resources available to them, from state-of-the-art training facilities to a top-notch staff. The athletes weight train in the 7,500 square foot Dee Glen Smith Center. The elite training facility has 16 full racks with Olympic platforms, a large dumbbell training area complete with 12 0-90 degree incline walk-up benches, and a large cardiovascular area complete with treadmills, cross trainers, stair steppers and spin bikes. The strength and conditioning program concentrates on strength training, speed development, flexibility, mental toughness, conditioning, injury prevention and motivation. Under the direction of Doug Elisaia, the director of strength and conditioning, the volleyball program works with Assistant Director of Strength and Conditioning Jon Webster.

To care for the athlete's injuries, the Utah athletics program maintains a partnership with a veteran sports medicine team supervised by Dr. Bob Burks, director of the University of Utah Sports Medicine Center at Red Butte Clinic. The sports medicine staff is headed by head trainer Bill Bean and associate trainer Deb Willardson, while the volleyball team works with Tim White on a daily basis.

Other resources available to Utah volleyball players to care for their physical well being include a sports psychologist and nutritionist.

The Dee Glen Smith Center houses the weight room and training room.

Academic Support

As an academic institution, the University of Utah enjoys a richly deserved reputation for excellence in education. The Utah athletics department works to ensure that each of its student-athletes takes advantage of the academic opportunities offered. With three full-time athletic academic advisors, the U. provides specialized academic counseling for its student-athletes.

The U. employs four full-time academic advisers for its student-athletes. The department is under the direction of director of athletic-academic services JoAnn Hulbert-Eagan, winner of 2002 Perlman Award for Excellence in Student Counseling.

The Ute academic team monitors the studies of each student-athlete to ensure he or she is making progress toward a degree. The academic advisors also dispense their knowledge of departmental and University requirements, and assist with course registration and the exploration and selection of majors.

Academics at Utah

Research
The U. is classified as a Research I university and is an international center for medical and engineering research. Research Park, which is located on 320 acres adjacent to the campus, encompasses the Huntsman Cancer Institute, the Howard Hughes Medical Institute, the Eccles Institute of Human Genetics and the Moran Eye Center.

Grants
One of the leading universities in the nation in federal research grants, the U. received $301 million in grants and contracts in 2005-06. The School of Medicine received over $85.5 million in research grants and awards for the development of new technologies, treatments and cures in 2005-06.

A Great Place to Learn
The Princeton Review ranked the University of Utah No. 1 for learning environment in 2005 (based on a survey of students).

Programs
The University offers 77 majors, 70 minors and certificates, and 95 graduate majors. Its colleges include a college of law, medicine and architecture.

Computer Services
The Burbidge Athletics Academic Center features the latest in computer technology and a lab with 25 computers. Laptop computers are also available for team travel. The U., which was one of the first schools to go up on the Internet, offers free electronic mail accounts to all students.

Programs

Study Table
Available to all student-athletes, regardless of year or GPA.

Tutorial Program
Individual tutors, drop-in tutoring, and exam reviews.

Life Skills Center
Provides student-athletes avenues for personal development, community service and leadership resources. Offers student-athletes information on possible career choices through the Strong Interest Inventory given to all freshmen in the Life Skills class.

Internships
The "Partnering with U." program offers career mentoring, shadowing and internship opportunities with area businesses.

Fifth-Year Senior Program
Provides financial assistance to student-athletes whose eligibility has expired before they have finished their degrees.

Summer School
Financial aid for summer school is available to Ute student-athletes who meet the criteria.

Priority Registration
U. student-athletes are given priority registration, which allows them to schedule classes around practices and training.

The Burbidge Center is central to Utah's classrooms and athletic venues.

The Center features a large computer lab, academic advising offices, group and one-on-one tutoring rooms and houses the Life Skills/Career Resource Center.

The Ute football team has the nation's second-longest current bowl win streak, having won its last six bowl games. Utah went undefeated (12-0) in 2004, winning the Fiesta Bowl.

Season Outlook

After a record-setting 2006 campaign that saw the Utah volleyball team go 16-0 in the Mountain West Conference (MWC), reach the second round of the NCAA Championship and set a school record with a 25-match winning streak, head coach Beth Launiere looks forward to the challenges of the 2007 season. The Utes return third-team American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-American senior hitter Whitney Webb, All-MWC middle blocker junior Lori Baird and 2004 MWC Libero of the Year Connie Dangerfield, who returns for her fifth season.

"It's going to be an exciting year," Launiere said. "We've got a strong schedule, we're going to be challenged, and it's going to be a season where we're going to be tested. Our players are going to have the opportunity to show what they're made of. We're looking forward to it."

Although the team returns a core group of starters and letterwinners, AVCA second-team All-American outside hitter Airial Salvo has transferred, while MWC Freshman of the Year, setter Sydney Anderson, is training with the national team. In addition, middle blocker Emillie Toone, who ranked second in the country in blocks last season, will be redshirting the year after suffering a knee injury during the summer.

"We definitely have some questions to get answered during the preseason," Launiere said. "The setting position will be decided when we're in the gym and on the court. I feel like we have very good experienced players in the key positions and it's a strong team."

In addition to Webb, Baird and Dangerfield, other key players returning include junior outside hitter Kathryn (Lovell) Haynie, senior hitter Kate Robison and sophomore middle blocker Chelsey Sandberg.

Launiere has also brought in a strong contingent of newcomers, including the 2006 Gatorade Idaho Volleyball Player of the Year, libero/setter Keisha Fisher, middle blocker Karolina Bartkowiak and outside hitter Jennifer Lanting.

"With so many newcomers, it's going to be a group that we have to form into a team," Launiere said. "A lot of preseason's going to be about that. Yes, it's about the physical training, but it's also about getting to know each other and establishing roles. We've got a lot of pieces, and that makes it an exciting challenge to form this team."

Middle Blocker

After helping Utah lead the nation in blocks as a sophomore, Baird is the leading returning middle blocker for the Utes. She ranked in the top five in the MWC with 1.34 blocks per game, was third on the team with a .333 hitting percentage and totaled 2.44 kills per game last year. Baird was named to the MWC All-Tournament team after leading Utah with a .549 hitting percentage in the tournament.

"Lori is ready to break out and carry more of the offensive load this season," Launiere said. "She was one of the top five blockers in the conference last year. Lori is much stronger this year and I look forward for her to take an increased offensive and blocking role."

Sandberg served in a backup role last year, playing in 20 games and recording 20 blocks and 16 kills.

"Chelsey really made a lot of progress this spring," Launiere said. "In Europe, we didn't miss a beat when she was in the game. She's a dynamic, quick athlete who has a good head on her shoulders and is a confident player. Chelsey has proved she's ready to play at this level."

Newcomers Danielle Killpack and Bartkowiak will also be looking to earn time on the floor. Killpack led Idaho Falls to the 5A state championship in 2004 and 2005, while Bartkowiak was a two-time all-conference and all-area selection at West Aurora.

"We are excited about both Danielle and Karolina in the middle," Launiere said. "Karolina is a good athlete who brings a strong personality and tremendous attitude to the team. She is a strong, physical player. Danielle has good size and has played in the region high performance program for a few years, so she understands our system."

Outside Hitter

Haynie, who started 23 matches for the Utes, came on strong at the end of last season, recording a season-high 20 kills in the NCAA Tournament against Michigan State and recording four straight double-digit kill matches to end the year. She averaged 3.02 kills per game.

"I am excited for Kat to have more of a key role on this team," Launiere said. "The end of last season and during the spring she proved she is ready for that responsibility. She's got one of the most dynamic arm swings in the country. Kat played with so much confidence at the end of last season, I'm sure she will bring that into this season and will be a real leader for us."

Robison, an experienced reserve who averaged 1.91 digs and 0.97 kills per game last year in a utility role, will be looked to as a steady force on the floor.

"Kate has been a wonderful utility and role player for us and I can't emphasize enough how important it is to have this type of player on any team," Launiere said. "Last year she played mostly in the back row, but she is ready to play all the way around. She plays with a lot of composure. With her being a senior, we'll look for her to provide a lot of leadership and be ready to go in a number of positions."

Sophomore Hilary Taylor and freshman Leilani Ili will also be in the mix.

"Hilary worked hard in the off-season to get strong and brings a lot to the team on and off the court," Launiere said. "Leilani comes into the program as a solid all-around player. She has good passing skills, which is so critical for success."

Opposite Hitter

All-American Webb, a solid player who averaged 3.13 kills, 2.67 digs and 1.29 blocks per game along with a .344 hitting percentage, returns as one of the top right sides in the country.

"Whitney really had a breakout season last year in terms of numbers and her role on the team," Launiere said. "We always match her up with their best hitter. She takes that role very seriously and gives us a huge blocking presence on that side. Offensively, Whitney is a very dynamic hitter whose role will increase even more this year. She is one of the most competitive players we have on the team. The stronger the competition, the more Whitney rises to the challenge."

Seniors Whitney Webb (left), a returning AVCA All-American, and Connie Dangerfield, former MWC Libero of the Year, are two of the top returning players for Utah.

Senior Kate Robison is an experienced reserve who can play anywhere on the floor.

Lanting, a 6-6 freshman who led Central Valley Christian to the CIF Div. 5 regular season title in 2006, brings good size and athleticism to the team.

"Jen has a lot of potential," Launiere said. "The sooner we can get her into our system, the sooner she can start contributing."

Defensive Specialist/Libero

Dangerfield, who averaged 4.21 digs per game at libero last year, is fully back from a redshirt season in 2005 and will be looked to as one of the leaders on the floor for the Utes.

"Connie started out last season having not played for a year, and it takes some time to get back into the competitive mode," Launiere said. "She had a great spring. More than anything, she is ready to lead this team and have a great fifth year."

Hodgman, who played in 23 games last year, played some key defensive minutes on the floor.

"For a freshman, Stephanie played some minutes in pressure situations and did very well with it," Launiere said. "She worked hard in the off-season and has proved that she can play. Stephanie also has a very good serve."

Fisher is one of the most exciting newcomers to Launiere's team. A four-time all-state selection who led Skyline to the 5A state final, she has a variety of skills that could see her playing either defensive specialist or setter.

"We are excited about Kiesha as a volleyball player," Launiere said. "She can play the game. She is competitive and aggressive, and can pass, set, serve and hit. We know she will help this team somewhere."

Setter

The setting position raises the most questions as the season begins, with Anderson and 2005 starter Shannon Krug both gone. Two players in the mix include freshmen Stephanie Shardlow and Fisher. Shardlow was a two-time all-league player at Saugus High School.

"Stephanie plays in a good club and has some good experience," Launiere said. "She has good size for a setter and is a competitive person who will be in the mix for the setting position.

Schedule

Launiere has put together the most competitive schedule the Utah program has ever had. The team will face eight teams that made the 2006 NCAA Tournament (UCLA, either Nebraska or Tennessee, Purdue, USC, Florida, Colorado State, New Mexico State and Brigham Young). Four of those teams finished in the top-10 of the final AVCA coaches poll (Nebraska, UCLA, USC and Florida).

"You've got to play the best to be the best," Launiere said. "We're not afraid of this schedule, and we're not backing down from it. The preseason schedule is going to prepare us very well for the Mountain West Conference. We're going to learn about ourselves early on, and that's the bottom line. We're excited about the challenge of it."

For the first time in its history, Utah was invited to participate in the 2007 AVCA College Volleyball Showcase, hosted by defending NCAA champion Nebraska, Aug. 24-25. The Utes begin the year against UCLA, then face either Tennessee or Nebraska.

"We're honored to be invited," Launiere said. "It's a showcase for the top teams in the country and it's an opportunity for us to showcase the strength of our program. We're excited to be there."

Utah also participates in the Purdue Motor Board Tournament in Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, facing North Carolina, Dayton and host Purdue. The Utes then return home to host USC (Sept. 7) and Florida (Sept. 9).

"I'll take my chances against anyone in the country on Crimson Court," Launiere said. "We like having those teams at our place and we're excited for the fans to have both matches here. It's a great opportunity to see two high-level volleyball matches in Utah."

The MWC schedule begins on Sept. 13 at San Diego State. Highlighted conference games include Colorado State (Sept. 21 and Oct. 20) and BYU (Oct. 12 and Nov. 9).

"The Mountain West is one of the top six volleyball conferences in the country," Launiere said. "Last year the teams in the conference did really well in out of conference games, which really strengthened all our programs. It's exciting to have that level of competition night in and night out. There are a lot of programs that have made a lot of progress and it's going to be very competitive this year."

Competitive, hard-working and dedicated all describe veteran head coach Beth Launiere as she has built the University of Utah volleyball team from the ground up, making it one of the premiere programs in the conference and in the nation.

Launiere (350-191, .647) took over in 1990, looking to straighten out a team that won only one match in 1989. In her 17 years, she has sculpted the Utes into a top-25 power and earned her 300th win with the program in 2005.

Her last nine teams have qualified for the NCAA Tournament and won five Mountain West Conference titles. She has recorded 11 straight 20-win seasons (12 overall). For her efforts, Launiere has earned AVCA West Region (2001, 06') and MWC (2004, 06') Coach of the Year honors twice.

Her ability to attract top-notch talent has helped take Utah to the forefront of the national scene. She has guided three Utes to All-America honors while another 38 have garnered all-conference accolades. The 2005 freshman class was ranked the eighth-best in the nation by Volleyball Magazine. Many of her players have represented Utah internationally in various US Olympic development programs.

Launiere's impact on the sport goes well beyond the court. Since 2004 she has guided volleyball on the national stage as a member of the AVCA Board of Directors. Her tenure as the Division I Coaches Volleyball Representative is a three-year appointment. Prior to that, Launiere served on the AVCA's All-America committee for five years.

On the court, Utah volleyball reached new heights in 2006. It set the school record for wins in a season (28), set the school and conference record for league wins (16) and became only the second MWC school ever to go undefeated in conference play. The team won a school-record 25 straight during the season and was ranked as high as ninth in the AVCA poll. Led by Emillie Toone, who finished second in the country in blocking, Utah led the nation in blocks (3.71). Launiere was voted both the MWC and West Region Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Since the beginning of the MWC in 1999, Utah has won three tournament championships (2001, 02', 05) and two regular season titles (2004, 06').

Utah has also been successful on a national level. In nine NCAA Tournament appearances, the Utes have reached the second round seven times, with a regional semifinal appearance in 2001. That year, Utah fell to eventual national champion Stanford, 3-1. Utah was the only team to win a game against the Cardinal during the tournament.

Launiere led Utah to its first national ranking in 2000 after defeating No. 1 Stanford, 3-2, on Sept. 5, 2000. The next week, the Utes appeared in the Sept. 18th AVCA Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 18. Utah earned its highest ranking in school history on Sept. 2, 2002, when it was ranked eighth.

Launiere arrived at Utah in 1990 and took over a team that had compiled a 1-32 record the previous year. Inspiring a turnaround in the program, she recorded Utah's first winning season in seven years (18-15) by her third year in 1992. Utah earned its first postseason berth in 1993, placing third in the NIVC. The Utes as a team and senior Mikki Kane-Barton led the nation in blocks that year, a first for any Western Athletic Conference team.

In addition to three AVCA All-Americans (Airial Salvo, Kim Turner and Whitney Webb), 15 of Launiere's players have earned first team all-conference accolades, while eight have been named all-region. Turner (2002-03) and Salvo (2006) were each named MWC Player of the Year. Launiere's recruits have also rewritten the record book, holding career records in kills, attempts, assists, aces, digs, total blocks and hitting efficiency. Several players have gone on to compete in the USA Volleyball system, including Turner, Salvo, Toone, Sydney Anderson, Lyndsey Henderson and Kelsie Kartchner. Danielle Leichliter trained overseas with Vanajan RC.

Prior to coming to Utah, the Grand Rapids, Mich., native was as an assistant coach at Illinois (1988-89). It went 57-12 during Launiere's stay and made it to two NCAA Tournaments, including a 1988 Final Four showing.

An assistant at Ferris State (Mich.) from 1985-87, Launiere helped the Bulldogs win three postseason bids and to a showing in the 1987 NCAA Division II Final Four.

Launiere graduated in 1985 from Aquinas College (Mich.). She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics and has a master's in sports administration from Illinois.

Burt Fuller

Assistant Coach • 2nd Season

Burt Fuller is in his second season with the University of Utah volleyball coaching staff after a successful stint as head coach at Utah State. Fuller, who spent the last five seasons as the Aggies' head coach, brings a wealth of success and knowledge to Utah.

In his first season in 2006 he helped lead the Utes to a 28-4 record, which included a 16-0 conference slate and a second round NCAA Tournament appearance.

While at Utah State, Fuller led his team to two NCAA Tournament appearances and guided his Aggies to an 82-70 mark. He chalked up two 20-win seasons in coaching two All-Americans (Erin Cartwright-Davis and Zuzana Cernianska) and 10 all-league selections.

The Aggies turned in a 21-13 record in 2005, finishing second in the Western Athletic Conference. They also took second in the WAC Tournament and earned their second NCAA Tournament berth under Fuller.

Utah State's other NCAA Tourney showing came in Fuller's first year at the helm. In 2001, the team recorded a 20-11 mark and went 12-6 in Big West play. Not only did the Aggies make it to the NCAA post-season, but he led his Aggies to a 3-2 win over No. 19-ranked Brigham Young in the first round. The 2001 squad finished its campaign ranked No. 21 in the final AVCA poll. Fuller coached five all-league honorees that year, the most on one team in USU history.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experiences, Fuller coached the IVA High Performance team at the 2006 Global Challenge in Maribor, Slovenia.

Prior to Utah State, Fuller was a long-time assistant at national power UCLA. In his seven seasons in Westwood, Calif., the Bruins went to the NCAA Tournament six times. UCLA finished second in 1994 and made two appearances in the regional final. His 2000 team finished No. 7 in the country. While at UCLA, he helped coach 23 All-PAC 10 selections and five All-Americans.

Fuller's first head coaching job was with Los Angeles Pierce Junior College where he coached the women's team in 1992 and 1993. He was also an assistant on the men's team as well, helping them to a state title in 1992 and a runner-up finish in 1994. He also has stints as an assistant at Fresno State (1989) and Chico State (1985).

Other coaching endeavors for Fuller include two years at Los Altos (Calif.) High School where he was named Central Coast Section Coach of the Year in 1998 and head coach of the USA Maccabiah Team in 1997 that won the USA's first-ever gold-medal in volleyball at the World Games. In 2005 he was Intermountain Region Youth Team coach, guiding it to a championship at the 2005 Global Challenge.

Fuller earned his recreation management degree from Chico State in 1986 and was a member of the men's volleyball program from 1984-85. Prior to that he obtained his associate of arts degree from Los Angeles Pierce Junior College in 1982. As a player at LA Pierce JC, he played middle blocker during the 1981 season and led his team to the state tournament in 1982 as an all-conference setter.

Heather Olmstead

Assistant Coach • 2nd Season

Heather Olmstead is in her second season as an assistant coach with the University of Utah. She previously spent three seasons as an assistant at Utah State.

In her first season in 2006 he helped lead the Utes to a 28-4 record, which included a 16-0 conference slate and a second round NCAA Tournament appearance.

While on the Aggie staff, she helped guide the team to a 48-43 record, including a 21-13 record and an NCAA Tournament berth in 2005.

In addition to her collegiate coaching duties, Olmstead coached the IVA High Performance team at the 2006 Global Challenge in Maribor, Slovenia.

Olmstead was a four-year starter for the Utah State women's volleyball team from 1998-2001 and finished her career second all-time in digs (981), sixth in games played (412) and eighth in matches played (116). She also set the single-season record for digs during her senior year with 340.

She became the first defensive specialist in the history of the Big West Conference to be named first-team all-league in 2001. That season, the Aggies made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 21 in the country. She was also named an academic all-Big West selection three times during her career and was named USU's scholar-athlete during her senior season.

After her collegiate career, Olmstead was the only libero in the country selected at the United States Professional Volleyball tryouts to compete in the 2002-03 season. In 2003 she played in the Professional Volleyball league in Europe before joining the Aggies' staff.

During the summer of 2005, she coached with the Intermountain Volleyball Association High Performance that participated in the Global Challenge.

Olmstead graduated from Utah State University in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in family and consumer science.

Jason Stout

Volunteer Assistant Coach • 2nd Season

Jason Stout is in his second season as a volunteer assistant coach with the University of Utah.

Stout earned two associate degrees from Salt Lake Community College. He also assisted the volleyball team and taught intermediate and advanced volleyball classes for seven years.

A 2000 graduate of Utah State, he assisted with the Aggies' volleyball team for two seasons (1999-2000). Stout was also a player/coach for the USU men's club team, leading it to a ninth-place finish at nationals.

He taught at West Lake Junior High from 2000-02 before returning to USU to earn a master's of education. He will graduate in May 2007.

Stout graduated from Skyline High School in 1993. He lettered in music and also played club volleyball for SHS.

2006 Season Review

The University of Utah volleyball team set a new standard of achievement after a historic effort in 2006.

"We had an extremely successful year, yet there are still some unrealized goals left," said head coach Beth Launiere. "I think a lot of individuals established themselves and found their roles on the team, which bodes well for us next season.

"Now, our goal is to mature as a team and to learn how to take it to the next level. We need to know how to beat a Florida, a USC or a UCLA-type of team on the road."

The Utes set school records for wins (28), conference wins (16) and winning percentage (.875) and also had a school-record 25-match winning streak. When the season was all said and done, Utah went 28-4 overall and was a perfect 16-0 in conference play. The Ute spikers were only the second team in conference history to go undefeated in league play in winning the program's second-ever regular season title.

Utah opened the 2006 season ranked No. 24 in the AVCA Coaches Poll but climbed to as high as No. 9, holding that spot for five straight weeks (10/23-11/20). Utah ended the regular season ranked No. 15 in the coaches poll.

The Utes were also one of the statistical powers of the year, ranking No. 1 in team blocks (3.71), seventh in hitting (.281) and 10th in win percentage (.875). Emillie Toone was one the nation's top individual performers, ranking No. 2 in the country in blocks (1.93).

With the team's accomplishments came unparalleled individual success. Airial Salvo and Whitney Webb both garnered All-American honors, with Salvo earning second-team distinction and Webb landing on the third team. They are just the second and third All-Americans in program history, joining Kim Turner who was a third-teamer back in 2003.

"This honor for Airial Salvo and Whitney Webb is unbelievably exciting for both the athletes and the University of Utah volleyball program," Launiere. "To have two All-Americans in one year says a lot about our program and the success that we enjoyed this season."

Five Utes in all were honored with conference accolades. Salvo was the MWC's Player of the Year, while Sydney Anderson won Freshman and Setter of the Year. Also named all-conference was Lori Baird, Toone and Webb. Launiere laid claim to the MWC's Coach of the Year honor and went on to win the West Region Coach of the Year as well.

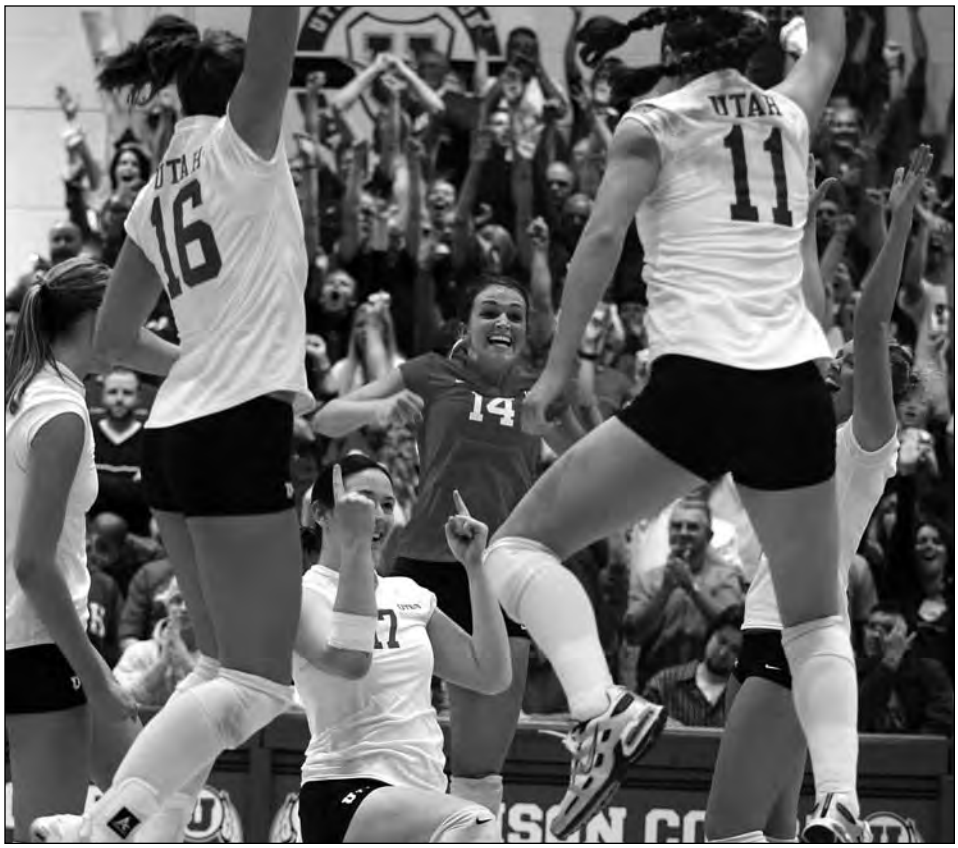
Salvo, Toone and Webb were first-team all-region while Baird was a second-team selection. Anderson was the West Region Freshman of the Year.

The 2006 campaign began with Utah going 2-2. The two losses were to then-No. 5-ranked Florida and then-No. 14-ranked USC. However, after the 3-1 loss to USC, things started to roll.

A 3-0 win over Fresno State in the ensuing match on Sept. 3 set Utah up to win 25 straight matches. During that span, Utah would lose only eight games. The Utes beat No. 16 and 17-ranked Brigham Young twice and iced their second conference championship in program history with a 3-1 win over Wyoming on Nov. 9.

The Utes qualified for their ninth straight NCAA Tournament, garnering a bid that saw them take on Michigan State in the first round. They topped the Spartans, 3-2, in the first round but lost to eventual national semifinalist and No. 4-ranked UCLA.

Emillie Toone finished second in the nation in blocking in 2006.



Whitney Webb was named a third-team AVCA All-American.
